

Princess Week

A week long adventure about being royal.

Princess Week is all about being royal and glamorous throughout time. Our Princesses will make their own outfits, get makeovers, dance, and be girly. Each day, we'll pick a favorite famous princess and do activities based around their stories.

Each child participates in several activities, songs and dances designed to teach about royalty. During Royalty for a Day Adventures, children about different aspects of royalty from around the world, including clothing, castles, and jewels. The emphasis of the Adventures is history. Children learn about how kings and queens have lived around the world.
